

Celebration of the 400 years for the Universal Company

C E L E B R A T I O N

We wish it to be:

- An act of thanksgiving to the Lord for the gift that the Company is to the world.
- An opportunity to come together as a Universal Company.
- A means to make known Jeanne de Lestonnac and her mission in the city of Bordeaux..

Date and place of the Celebration:

May 12, 2007, in the Cathedral of Saint André de Bordeaux

Participants:

- The religious in the Provinces of France and the lay people related to the Company in these Provinces who wish to participate, as well as other religious congregations and institutes closely connected with the Company.
- The General Team and those sisters who have served as Superiors General in the past in the Company of Mary and the Société de Jésus Christ, presently the Province of France- East.
- Religious and lay representatives from the different Provinces of the Company in Europe. Each Province will determine the criteria for participation. On the part of the Province of France-Belgium there is no set limit to the number of persons who can participate. They will look for housing in other places outside of the Company for those who would need it. Persons from the other continents where the Company is present are also welcomed in accordance with the criteria established in each context.

Cost:

Each Province or Delegation will cover its own costs.

Coordinator:

Marie Claude Ranouil.
